At Cha

From delicately perfumed white teas and scented floral flower teas to smoky roasted oolongs, tea is inextricably linked to the culinary tradition of dim sum. Teas are served in 500ml pot

China

Big Red Robe 12 Wuyi Mountains, Fujian Province Originating from the Wuyi Mountains, it is said that four Big Red Robe tea bushes were wrapped in imperial scarlet robes after the tea saved the life of the Emperor's mother.	Golden Monkey King 8 Yunnan Province With large twisted leaves and golden tips, Golden Monkey King black tea has a satisfyingly rich liquor and a mellow, distinct caramel flavour, accented with apricots and sun-dried hay.
Qi Shan Mao Jian 6 Huangshan Mountains, Anhui Province Strong yet refreshing, this unique yellow tea comes from the Huangshan of China. A speciality of the region, this floral and aromatic tea has notes of apricot and a gentle smokiness.	Iron Goddess of Mercy Top Fancy 6 Anxi, Fujian Province Ti Kuan Yin, or Iron Goddess of Mercy, is deep and rich, with a delicate fruit flavour and a heady, floral aroma of magnolias, lilies and wild flowers.
Mini Tuo Cha Puer cake 5 Yunnan Province Aged for up to three years, this delicately complex Puer tea is balanced, smooth and lightly earthy.	Iron Goddess of Mercy 5 Fujian Province Grown in the Fujian Province, this famous tea is named after Guan Yin, the Iron Goddess of Mercy. Its pale gold liquor has a light floral flavour with buttery notes of green vegetables.
Puer Leaf 6 Yunnan Province Often enjoyed with dim sum, Puer leaf tea is deep mahogany in colour with an umami aroma of mushrooms and forest wood.	Phoenix Dragon Pearls 6 Fujian Province An artisan green tea made from premium green tea leaves and jasmine flowers. The leaves are rolled by hand and infused with fresh jasmine flowers picked early in the morning before sunlight.
Tian Hong 6 Meng Ku, Yunnan Province One of Yunnan's most treasured beverages, this bright, burgundy coloured tea is highly fermented, with a strong caramel taste that gives way to a crispy feeling on the tongue.	Jasmine Chung Hao 5 Fujian Province A skilfully made speciality green tea with the rich fragrance of jasmine blossom. The tea undergoes an arduous process of layering fresh blossoms over tea leaves several times.
Golden Silk 6 High Mountains, Yunnan Province Handcrafted from the golden leaf buds of a revered Yunnan varietal. The delicately twisted leaves brew an amber coloured tea, with the aroma of rich chocolate and tobacco.	Autumnal White Peony 7 Fujian Province Handpicked and crafted at the end of summer when its fragrance is most intense, Pai Mu Tan or White Peony has delicate flowery, fresh and velvety notes.
Dragon Well 6 Zhe Jiang, Xi Hu Dragon Well, or Long Jing, is a variety of roasted green tea which grows in mountains surrounded by lakes. Refreshingly smooth in taste, this is amongst the best of Chinese green teas.

Yauatcha bespoke blends

Earl Grey Oolong 6
A British classic with an elegant Asian twist. A dark roasted oolong tea is infused with the oil of Bergamot oranges, yielding a citrus brew with undertones of sweet vanilla.

Taiwan

Classical Oriental Beauty 6
Omei Nantou, Taiwan
During the humid months of summer, tea leaves are bitten by small leafhoppers leading to the tea's distinctive flavours. Brilliant amber in colour, with hints of honey and rose.

Green Spring Snails 8
Tao Yuan Province
Made on the hillsides in spring, tea leaves are rolled into neat spirals resembling green snails. Because the tea grows amongst fruit trees, the leaves absorb the fragrance of the blossoms.

High Mountain Oolong 8
High Mountain, Taiwan
Handpicked, and grown in a blanket of thick fog, 1,000 metres above sea level. High Mountain Oolong tea offers fragrant notes, slightly floral flavours and a pleasantly smooth taste.

Dark Pearl Oolong 8
Tai Tung, Taiwan
Grown in the highlands of the Taiwanese hills, Dark Pearl Oolong tea leaves are carefully hand plucked, semi-fermented and rolled by hand into delicate pearls.

Japan

Black Samurai – Organic 12
Japan
Handmade in Japan, this organic sweet black tea has a clean and clear character with hints of honey, exotic wood and spices.

Hojicha – Organic 6
Fukuroi plantations
Distinctive from other Japanese green teas, Hojicha is roasted in a porcelain pot over charcoal. With the warm shade of old gold and malty taste of toasted hazelnuts, this green tea is an autumn speciality.

Egypt

Camomile 5
Nile River, Egypt
The best quality Camomile comes from the Nile Delta in Egypt. This pleasantly aromatic tea is caffeine free with relaxing properties. Delicate, naturally sweet and soothing.
